THE DAILY NEWS
Newport 1870
TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1870
BY O. F. JACKSON, 97-THAMES-ST.

Advertisers will please bear in mind that the circulation of the DAILY NEWS is more than DOUBLE that of the Daily Herald, and greater than the combined circulation of the Daily and Weekly Herald. As one proof of this fact, the list of Letters remaining in the Post-Office is advertised in the NEWS, as BY LAW REQUIRED.

We hope that arrangements will be made, this year, to celebrate the fourth of July in a manner worthy of the day and the great events which it commemorates. For years past, the day has passed almost unnoticed in Newport, and the consequence is that a very large number of our citizens go elsewhere, where there is a celebration; the result, therefore, is that more than three times the amount of money is carried out of the town than would be necessary to appropriate in order to have a suitable and respectable celebration among ourselves. We do not ask or expect for the thing to be got up in an extravagant manner, but we go for a decent appropriation. We pay a tax here, and we are willing to bear our portion of the amount, which is very trifling to each man.

Now, that there is a praise-worthy revival among the fire companies, let a suitable appropriation be made, and a judicious committee appointed; then, invite the Artillery, the Horse Company, the Masons, Old Fellows, Fire Companies and the charitable institutions generally, and we are confident that a very large procession can be formed, and the day celebrated in a manner worthy its importance. We speak of this matter thus early, in order to call attention to it, with the hope of arousing a little patriotism and public spirit in the bosoms of our citizens. There is no reason why we should forever be drones, and contented to repose in inactive obscurity forever; by arousing a little here and a little there, we can ultimately kindle a flame that will regenerate us; and make us what we ought to be, a thriving place of importance. We have every natural advantage, and there is no earthly reason why we should not improve that which we already possess, and do even something ourselves.

FIRE.—A fire was discovered a few moments after 12 o'clock last night, in the small building on the north side of Ferry Wharf, occupied by Mr. Barnum as a shoe making and huckster shop, which completely destroyed the inside of the building, with its entire contents. Loss probably about $300; no insurance. But for the aid of the engines, and our citizens generally, the conflagration must have been extensive.

We are requested by Mr. John W. Davis Jr., Foreman of No. 1, to return the thanks of this Company to No. 5, whose machine is being repaired, for their voluntary and prompt assistance on this occasion in working No. 1.

FIRE IN WICKFORD.—A gentleman from Wickford informs us that a fire broke out in the house of the Rev. Mr. Rowse, in that town, at about 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and but for the timely aid of a few buckets of water, several houses must inevitably have been destroyed. As it was, the damage was slight. He also informs us that they have a very fine fire engine to that town, but it is destitute of leading hose, and in case of fire, would be of very little service, unless the fire was close by an abundant supply of water. Hose are almost as necessary as an engine.

The ship Mary Francis, which went ashore and bilged some weeks since, near Point Judith, was got off yesterday morning, and will be brought into this harbor and taken on the way and required. The Perry went out to her yesterday for the purpose of bringing her in, but the Cutter Jackson, Capt. Waldron, already had her in tow.

P. S.—It was, after all, found necessary for the Perry to tow this ship in. She left here at 7 o'clock in the evening, and returned at 9, with the ship in tow.

HE WAS ONLY A PRIVATE.—A soldier is announced to have died in Pittsburgh, and been buried at the expense of public charity. His name not mentioned. He was only a private—no epaulettes graced his shoulders, or public procession his lonely obsequies.

[Correspondence of the News.]
Pittsburgh, N. H., Apr. 1870.

Mr. Editor:—

After a ride of fifty miles in the splendid cars of the Boston Railroad, it is refreshing to find one's self comfortably located in the parlor of the Rockingham House, and I embrace a few spare moments to drop a line to your honored self. The principal attraction of this town consists in its possessing a Navy Yard, I perceive, at least, two of our Newport gentlemen are stationed within it. A visit to the Yard is most interesting, and it is kept as neat as possible. The town itself is as dull as any place I can conceive of, and compared to it, Newport is indeed Bellum. There are many elegant residences here, and most of them are surrounded with spacious gardens. I observe a few capacious churches, and among them stands one built of granite, owned by the Unitarians. The Episcopal Church is a neat but small edifice, and its worthy Rector, Dr. Burroughs, has been stationed over it for the last twenty years. His sermons are remarkable for their elegance and close reasoning.

The projected Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railroad, will reach within fifty miles of this city, as it is to make its terminus at Portland. The track on this road is being laid at the rate of one third of a mile per day, the iron for this purpose is all imported from England. There is still much excitement felt in all this neighborhood, in relation to Doct. Coolidge. The ladies of his acquaintance express much sympathy for him, and assert that a man with such a head of hair, cannot be guilty of so horribly wicked a deed as that for which he has been condemned. He is now busily employed at making shoes at Thomaston States Prison.

The season is much more backward than at New York, and the White Mountains are covered with snow, which causes them to loom up, and appear more prominent than usual. I must obey the dinner bell.

Yours truly,
Arthur.

LATER FROM MEXICO.—The U. S. frigate Mississippi, Com. McKenzie, arrived at Boston on Sunday having left Vera Cruz on the 2d inst. and Havana on the 8th. Just as the Mississippi was about to sail from Vera Cruz the propeller Massachusetts came into the harbor, having on board Mr. Clifford, the Commissioner of the United States to negotiate a treaty with the Mexican Government. Mr. Sevier, Mr. Clifford's associate was also on board the Massachusetts.

Com. McKenzie states that previous to his departure, he had learned that Mr. Trist and Gen. Scott were anxious to leave Vera Cruz at the earliest possible date, after their arrival there, and that had they arrived in season they would certainly have embarked on board the Mississippi. They were of course expected daily, and the steamer Massachusetts would remain in port until their arrival to carry them to some northern port of the United States.

It was generally rumored and credited at Vera Cruz that the Navy Department had refused Commodore Perry's request for leave of absence.

On the morning of the 31st the people of Vera Cruz were expecting the arrival of Santa Anna. This illusion was soon destroyed by learning that Santa Anna took passage in a small vessel about 30 miles from Vera Cruz, fearing that he should be assassinated by some abandoned people in Vera Cruz. He had a pass from Gen. Butler to go out of the country.

The Vera Cruz True American of the 31st ult. contains the following in relation to Santa Anna:—

We learn from good authority that Santa Anna requested Col. Hughes, Governor of Jalappa to receive him, as he had a passport to leave the country. Col. H. went with two companies of dragoons and one of artillery to meet the gentleman at his hacienda of Enchiro. He will probably embark in the English Steamer for Havana. He will go to Antigua, and finally to Jamaica to await there an offer from John Bull to return to his native country.

The Mexican civil authorities of Vera Cruz resumed their power on the 30th ult. Gen. Valencia died on the morning of the 25th.

Congress had not yet assembled.

ONE OF THEM.—There is a man in Wisconsin by the name of Atherton, who in one week in January last, thrashed four hundred bushels of wheat, three constables, and four deputy sheriffs.

Shooting Deputies.—Extract from a letter, dated Camargo, March 13th:—
"I have just returned from a most melancholy scene. Seven soldiers were sentenced to death for desertion. Three were first brought out, knelt on their coffins, and were shot. The other four were then brought forward, knelt, bandage tied on their eyes, the words 'ready! present!'—and—glorious news it was—the poor fellows reprieved! They all stood it like majors. One of them, fainting when the bandage was taken from his eyes."

MAIL TO AMERICA ONCE A WEEK.—A Notice has been issued by the Post-office authorities that during the ensuing summer months will be transmitted between Liverpool and North America once a week by the British contract mail packets, which will leave Liverpool for Boston and New York alternately, every Sunday, and will be despatched on their return voyage, on every Wednesday. This weekly service will commence with the outward packets on the 8th of April, and with the homeward packets in May, and will continue until the end of November, after which time, and during the following four months, mails will be conveyed to Boston and New York only once a fortnight, instead of weekly. The branch packet for Newfoundland will be despatched from Halifax on the arrival at the latter port of the homeward packet from Boston, and the branch packet for Bermuda, will be despatched on the arrival at Halifax of the outward packet for Boston.

THE PRINCETON AT PALERMO.—During the revolution at Palermo, the town situated on the shores of the straits of Messina was bombarded by a strong ciadell planted on a neck of land stretching out parallel with the harbor and city which the fort commanded. The foreign consuls protested against this wanton act, and the U. S. steamer Princeton, Capt. Eagle, and H. M. S. the Thetis, Capt. Codrington, anchored themselves in the harbor, and between the guns of the ciadell and the houses. This proved a partial protection only, for the commander of the fort violated his promise, and resumed the bombardment. Some of the shots passing over and between the masts of the Princeton. Their batteries were all manned, and orders were given that the instant a shot or shell struck her hull, a return fire should at once be opened. Similar orders were given on board the Thetis. Most of the foreigners in the city took refuge on board the men-of-war, and the Princeton received the wife of the commander of the Neapolitan fleet, the Sicilian Consul, &c. The Consuls, Capt. Eagle and Codrington met, for deliberation and adopted and published resolutions worded in the most severe terms expressive of their indignant feelings against the commanding general's brutality.

AMERICAN SYMPATHY WITH SICILY.—A correspondent of the Newark Advertiser writing from Messina, relates the following instances of practical sympathy with the struggles of the people of Sicily for freedom:—
"Valentine Most, the son of our eminent surgeon, rendered great service to the revolutionists at Palermo. He is represented as having led them on in their most dangerous attacks, fighting bravely and coolly, and in his professional capacity performing valuable surgical operations upon the wounded. It is said the people almost idolize him, and his name is already identified with their glorious cause."

Five hundred thousand acres of land are to be sold in Jackson, Mississippi, on the 1st of January next, to pay the Planter's Bank bonds.

LOVE.
Oh who can tell the power of love!
The greater far, than fabled Jove,
You'd think him hapless on a day,
This roughish, laughing, witching love.
But oh! beware!
Look not! take care!
He'll lay a snare
Your heart to take,
A snare he'll make
Of your life's day,
Though truth be seen,
Oh do not dream,
That he will ever
Prove true and true,
Beware! Beware! this wondrous boy,
The human heart he makes his toy,
If thou wouldst live a life of joy,
To his advances pray be coy,
In all things move as if thou wert
In truth displeased,
When once he loves
He sells himself,
Unto this elf,
This Cupid,
With this I'll close,
If you be true,
Your heart, I'll think
You stupid!

CHEAP POSTAGE.—The Boston committee, in favor of cheap postage, have issued a short address on the subject, giving their reasons in favor of a reduction of the present rates, together with the form of a petition to Congress. They say that within the last two years, under the partial reduction of the postage, the number of letters have increased from 25 to 52 millions. And it will be remembered that the post master, in his last report, admitted that the increase in the revenue was much beyond what was expected.

Upwards of 3,000 persons have been naturalized as citizens in the Common Pleas Court alone at New York, within the last three or four weeks.

DENTAL SURGERY.—Dr. Morton's Lecture.—This afternoon (Tuesday), a member of our family, who has suffered much from her teeth for many years, was induced to inhale Dr. Morton's etherial vapor. In two minutes she was in a state of profound insensibility, and in three minutes more, fourteen deeply and firmly set teeth were scattered upon the floor. She has seven or eight more to be removed, and says she now feels no reluctance to the operation whatever.

It gives us great pleasure to make a statement of these facts; and hope they will be the means of inducing some poor sufferers to seek in Dr. Morton's office, relief from further misery. The agent which has been introduced to the public by Dr. Morton, and in whose hands it is skillfully used, promises to pluck the deepest pang from human suffering, and to rob even surgery itself of much of its horror.

We cheerfully bear testimony to the humane feelings exhibited towards patients under Dr. Morton's care, and to the lively and attentive sympathy manifested in their behalf.—Boston Christian Alliance. Edited by Rev. Dorus Clark.

Newport Victualling House.

JONES'S SOAP.
Ladies in the country and watering places, see how the sun has burnt your faces! Look at your necks—how yellow, dark with tan! Why, will you repulse the love of any man! Those freckles, too! you know they'd quickly fly! If Jones's Soap you'd use, come once—do try! It costs but fifty cents, and I am told it's worth aye, doubly, worth its weight in gold. Persons who have had no faith in it, have been astounded at the wonderful effect of Jones's—that is, the genuine Jones's Soap—in beautifying the skin. For sale by Dr. R. J. Taylor.

At a Town Council of the Town of Newport, held at the Town Hall, April 16th, 1870.
WHEREAS, many persons litter up the streets of this Town with heaps of rubbish, such as coal ashes, &c., and throw into the streets old bushes, house paper, &c., rendering the streets inconvenient and dangerous, and obstructing the gutters, thereby flooding the streets in wet weather.

Therefore, Be it Ordained, by the Town Council of the town of Newport, That it shall not be lawful, from and after the passing of this Ordinance, for any person to heap up coal ashes, or any other rubbish in the streets of this Town, to remain in said street over night, or to litter them up with old bushes, house paper, or any other rubbish.

All persons violating this Ordinance shall pay a fine the sum of two dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered to and for the use of the Town, by complaint or action of debt, before the Justice Court of said Town, in the name of the Town Treasurer of said Town.

It shall be the duty of the Street Commissioner of said Town of Newport, to prosecute all persons violating the provisions of this Ordinance.

Ordered, That the above Ordinance be published three successive times in the Newport Daily News, and the Daily Herald, a true copy.

Attest: B. J. HOWLAND, Council Clerk. April 17-3d.
